To All Whom It May Concern

Bellinda CR, s.r.o., has been working with Martin Vosecky Director and owner of CATRO for several years in very tight and successful cooperation in many areas.

One of the best achievements was organisation of Assessment Centre for Junior Brand management position run in Feb 2005 in Prague, where final candidate get responsibility over the Central European area for international exposure of DIM intimates brand. Assessment was prepared with great professional help of Petra Linhartova with full involvement into our company culture.

Right selection of the person was leading to her career inside the Bellinda CR, s.r.o. within 2 years period to lead our marketing team as Group Brand Managers in these days. We were looking for talents and people with potential and this goal was clearly delivered with support of CATRO.

All projects, which has been so far running are first class standard and always managed with full professionalism with focus on company specifics and culture.

Please feel free to contact me directly for other insights.
