

To whom it may concern,

We have recently engaged Martin Vosecky and his team at Catro to recruit the key position of Finance Director for our agency in Prague.

We were impressed with the Martin's responsiveness to our needs and also his abilities in helping us to refine our criteria for selection. This helped us to be more broad-minded in the selection process and more confident of the selection that we ultimately made. Finally, his insights during the interviewing process helped us to ensure a good fit.

The recruitment has been a real success and I would recommend Martin Vosecky and Catro to any organization that has a key recruitment to undertake.
