Dear Sir, dear Madam,

I should like to take this opportunity to express my satisfaction with the services provided by your company, CATRO.

I have a high regard for your totally professional approach in working with us to restructure our company, which was at that time undergoing one of the most difficult periods of its ten-year existence.

The high quality of the human resource services you offered, which involved terminating relationships with former employees, organizing a selection procedure for suitable candidates and placing them in the appropriate positions, advising on a new company head office and general consultancy, have made an important contribution to the development and profitability of our company.

Your ongoing interest in our company's affairs and your continued support makes you a safe partner for any future collaboration.

Many thanks and our best wishes for your success in your professional activities and many other satisfied customers.

With my best regards,

Ivana Guthová
